Sponsorship and Exhibition Opportunities ALMOST SOLD OUT - BOOK NOW

ISM2016 sponsors will have frontline opportunities for a global information exchange and direct access to approximately 400 industry specialists and stakeholders. Over 4 days, the program will feature internationally and nationally renowned guest speakers, scientific and technical lectures, technical tours, an industry exhibition and social events. Organisations who specialise in mine surveying, mining and geotechnical engineering, geology and mineral evaluation, this is a must do event for your marketing strategy.

ISM2016 is where the entire global industry will be on show, including your competitors. Held only every three years, in 2016 Australia is proud to be the host nation for the world's biggest meeting of mine surveyors.
